Q.8 - We realise this may be because as parents you have not had any experience of bullying and this is great news! However our anti-bullying policy (on our website) sets out how we would deal with any instances of bullying were they to occur - I hope this can reassure you as parent/carers.*

We have taken on board all of your comments and discussed any specific issues you raised with appropriate members of staff where needed.

Your responses to 'Please tell us what you like about our school':

"I love how you are made to feel welcome and that you can approach any of the staff knowing they will help. Love how caring every member is towards the children"

"I love the family feel to this school. All children feel part of one big family. I find the staff to be supportive and encouraging towards my child"

"Everything! Lovely, small school, very well behaved children and the best staff - always helpful and committed to their work"

"There is always early engagement by the school if any issues are arising"

"Despite my child only just starting this term, I'm really pleased with how they've settled and the effort to help him adjust fit in and manage"

"We like that our son is well looked after and that the teachers look after him"

"The atmosphere in your school is welcoming, inclusive and purposeful. I feel it encourages curiosity and a love of learning. We feel happy leaving our daughter in the care of St Cuthbert's staff and love seeing how excited she is to learn"

"My son is happy about the teaching and teachers' explanations"

"The teachers are always going the extra mile to help the children"

"Amazing teachers and staff. Strong home/school communication. Fun and supportive school environment. My daughter comes out of school happy and content at the end of each day. Great school all round. Would love my daughter to have more years at this school under the two tier school system currently under review"

"All the teaching staff and the head teacher are very friendly and you can see the great care and effort they put into helping each child. My daughter missed a lot of nursery and it's thanks to Early Years she's on track, thriving and settled into school life so well. Amazing team, thank you all so much"

"St Cuthbert's is a fantastic school. The staff have been amazing with my son and brought him on in ways I couldn't imagine! Thank you"
