

Year 1

Computing

Age Related Expectations

Coding

Know that instructions, and sequences of instructions, control devices and begin to understand that order and accuracy are important.

Digital Content

Be able to classify objects using single and multiple criteria. Be able to represent data graphically. Know that data can be stored electronically and retrieved at a later date.

Application

Know about technology in the home, and school.

E-Safety

Be aware of e-safety issues. Know what personal information is. Know that they can tell an adult if they are concerned about anything.